

United Tibet Samaj

འབྲུག་གི་ཕན་ཐོག་ལ་

United Tibet

1. All Tibetan areas united under a politically, economically, culturally and spiritually sovereign country with Tibetan as the national language and Lhasa as the capital.
2. Each area will be made as economically independent as possible. All economic, ecological planning, education system of each area will be done by the local people in consultation with experts.
3. All local languages such as Hui, Tu, Salar, Sichuan Chinese will be taught in local areas. All government officials in these areas will be required to pass exams in these languages.
4. All Chinese origin persons who accept the Tibetan language and culture, keep their wealth inside Tibet will be accepted as citizens. However, Chinese language imperialism and Chinese control over land and resources will end. All land and resources will be controlled via cooperative networks in different communities.
5. United Tibet shall remain free from all forms of imperialism, coercion - political, economic, cultural, religious from all neighbouring countries.
6. United Tibet shall work to create a new spiritual renaissance based on love for all beings, Tantra and Dharma.